AMERICA'S FAVORITE DRAGAPELLA® BEAUTYSHOP QUARTET AT LTVB! APRIL 15

The Kinsey Sicks began in 1993 as a group of friends who went to a Bette Midler concert in San Francisco dressed as the Andrews Sisters. Assuming they'd be among many drag queens, they found themselves to be the only ones (other than Bette, of course). They were approached that night to perform at an upcoming event. Their reply - "we don't sing" - was quickly disproved when they realized that all of them had musical backgrounds. They began singing and harmonizing that night, and the seed for the Kinsey Sicks was planted.

In July 1994, the Kinsey Sicks drew a large and enthusiastic crowd at their first public performance on a street corner in San Francisco's Castro District. Since then, The Kinsey Sicks have produced and performed full-length theatrical productions around the country in such prestigious venues as Herbst Theatre in San Francisco, the Nordstrom Recital Hall in Seattle, the Broward Center in Ft. Lauderdale, the Hobby Center in Houston, the Wheeler Opera House in Aspen and the Pacific Design Center in Los Angeles.

Their earliest shows, such as Sicks Appeal, Sicks-Tease, The Balled Sopranos, Motel Sicks: A Dragapella Summer Vacation, Everything But the Kitsch 'n' Synch, and Greatest Tits, all premiered at San Francisco's New Conservatory Theatre Center. Their more recent musicals - I Wanna Be a Republican, Oy Vey in a Manger, Wake the F@#k Up America, Each Hit & I, Electile Dysfunction, America's Next Top Bachelor Housewife Celebrity Hoarder Makeover Star Gone Wild, and Things You Shouldn't Say - have toured internationally and have drawn the attention and devotion of unexpectedly diverse audiences.

In 2001, the girls produced and starred in the critically-acclaimed Off-Broadway hit, DRAGAPELLA! Starring the Kinsey Sicks at New York's legendary Studio 54.

That production received a nomination for a Lucille Lortel award (the Off-Broadway Tony) as Best Musical and a Drama Desk nomination for Best Lyrics.
